The Connection

NOVEMBER 2018

Official News-Publication of Edgewater United Methodist Church

Two men were visiting a factory where they were shown the rooms where huge machines were operating. Inside those rooms, the noise level was extremely high. Then the guide showed them a smaller room which was very quiet. One of the men commented that there was not much going on in this particular room. To which the guide replied: "This is the most important room in the entire plant. This is where the power comes from to run the huge machines. We call this room 'The Quiet Room.'"

In the same way, the "power room" of the Christian life is the place where we daily meet and commune with God. It's where we find strength and power to meet the challenges that await us. Why don't we do that more often? Why for many of us is our private time of devotions sort of "hit and miss," with a greater emphasis on the "miss" than on the "hit"? Could it be that we do not sense our need of spending time alone with God each day?

The apostle Paul wrote: "Not that we are competent in ourselves to claim anything for ourselves, but our competence comes from God." (2 COR 3:5) In other words, on our own, we cannot fully live the Christian life. We are powerless to be all God wants us to be and to live as God wants us to live. "Our competence comes from God." That is why it's important for us to make time in our busy schedules for time alone with God.

Think about this: There is no demand made upon your life or mine which isn't a demand upon the life of Christ in us. Only as we spend time alone with him, meditating upon the Word of God, bringing our requests in prayer, and receiving fresh strength can we be the kind of Christian God wants us.

Do you want to be effective in serving the Lord.? Do you want to do more than just go through the motions of Christian service? Do you want your efforts to make an impact on people for the sake of the Gospel and for eternity? Then realize that your strength and power come only from the "power room" of spending time daily in the Lord's presence so that you will have all that you need for the day ahead.

NEXT SUNDAY, November 11th is one of our greatest opportunities of the year to reach out and invite someone to church – it's Back-to-Church Sunday. We have a special service planned to be followed by a picnic on the grounds. This year the picnic will be both in Hardin Hall and in tents outside of HH.

- This IS NOT a covered-dish event. There is a committee planning the meal. If you want to help please contact Pat Tiffany or the church office.

The purpose of this event is to encourage our "lost sheep" to come back for at least a visit AND to invite un-churched folks to come see what our church is all about. If you're proud of your church (and I hope you are) then start thinking about and praying about someone you can invite.

Besides inviting someone, we ask the following of you:

- Please wear your name tag. If you don't have one please contact the church office or Helen Karl ASAP.
- If you are physically able, please park farther away from the building so our guests will have room to park.

Thank you! Peace and grace..... Pastor Gary

BAKE SALE

Thoughts of Christmas make my mouth water because mom and grandma were super bakers. They made taffy, walnut brittle, sand tarts, penuche and fruit cakes. YUM! What are your favorites? Share those special treats with us by making some for our bake sale. (Also, share the recipe for the UMW recipe cookbook!) The folks who come, love to buy and share their Christmas memories as they shop.

If you want a certain price for your baked goods, price them. If not, we will. Items that sell fast include goodies that vendors and patrons can munch on as they work or shop. Other great selling goods are items that make a great dessert or can be frozen and brought out when guests or family come for the holidays. Bring your baked goods to the Choir Practice Room on Friday, Dec. 7th between 2 and 7 PM.

If you don't bake but love to eat cookies and candies, you'd make a great salesperson. Come, give us a hand on Saturday, Dec. 8th any time between 9AM & 4PM. We have a wonderful time working together and meeting all of the new people and old friends. Besides, our efforts raise money to support our church!

The sign-up sheets will be on the bulletin board in the hallway between Hardin Hall and the Sanctuary on Sunday, Nov. 18th. Call Helen Karl if you have any questions or to sign up (386) 409-8382 or e-mail her at catsandbook@bellsouth.net

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

The UMW is a supportive, inclusive Christian membership organization where women grow spiritually, develop as leaders, and serve and work to create a world in which ALL women, children and youth thrive.

UMW is celebrated as the women's ministry of the United Methodist Church.

Our members nurture one another in community and support including United States and International projects and partners improving the lives of women, children and youth with their prayers, volunteer and advocacy efforts and financial gifts.

Any woman who commits herself to the purpose of the UMW and to engage in mission, study, personal growth and social action can join. You don't have to be a Methodist or meet an age requirement to be a member.

To become a member of the UMW, just talk to someone who is already a member of the organization.

Our UMW president is Arlene Tilison and we meet quarterly or whenever called. We currently have three women's circles that meet on a monthly basis.

Information for our circles:

Dorcas Circle - meets on the 2nd Tues. 1PM
Joandel Jackson (386) 423-9955

Naomi Circle - meets on the 3rd Tues. 7PM SS Rm.#3
Linda Rutty (386) 345-3430

Ruth Circle - meets on the 3rd Tues. 1PM
Arlene Tilison (386) 428-4351

You are welcome to join any one of the above units. If you have further questions, please contact Arlene Tilison, (386) 428-4351.

UMW Christmas Luncheon on Nov. 30th at noon at Blackbeards must have a head count by Nov. 16th. Please let Ruth Michie (386) 402-7929 know if you plan to attend. Spouses are welcome to join us.

Please mark your calendars for Dec. 15th at 7PM for our Advent by Candlelight. "Let There Be Light" is the theme. A committee is working on details and more info will be coming soon. We need hostesses. If you have questions, contact Arlene Tilison.
