L: How wonderful it is to be in a dwelling place for God!

P: The refreshing springs of God's love cleans and restores us.

L: There is a place here for everyone. No one is turned away.

P: The least and the lost; the homeless and hopeless are always welcome in God's house.

L: Praise to God who invites and shelters us all.

P: Praise to God who heals and sends us forth to serve.

OPENING PRAYER John Thomas

In the beauty of this place, we have come to pray, to worship, to receive healing and hope. We come from the struggles and triumphs of the week, needing to feel the soothing presence of God. Lord, be with us this day. Calm and soothe our souls. Cause us to rejoice that you have provided a special place where we may gather to talk of your presence and love; to sing your praises; and to be empowered to go forth to serve you. Amen

Have you noticed the Prayer Garden lately? Jim & Jeanie and the prayer garden committee have been busy extending it to the west side of the monument adding new cremation plots. A hedge of beautiful flowering hibiscus plants were added, a six foot illuminated cross was installed on the monument and a trellis with a new walkway between the east side into the west side of the garden. We hope you are able to visit the garden soon for silent prayer and meditation.
